

Sunday News No. 26

Random notes from random sources

The light side of life

1. A funny comment on Marginal Revolution's (<https://marginalrevolution.com/>) article on the new leadership for the World Bank
"Can we do without all this speculation? Ivanka this, Carly that, now this guy. I like this blog more when we discussed for hours on end how to cut Jeff Bezos's taxes so he could get even richer and cut entitlements so the middle class could die off and make fun of liberals that oppose us because they "don't know" economics. I miss those days." Call Saul, January 14th, 2019
2. Clifford Stoll's embarrassing Web predictions in 1995

3. Perfect 10, one of the top sports (and team support) performances of all time
